

Brett is a Senior Managing Director in the New York office of JLL Capital Markets, Americas with more than 17 years of experience in the commercial real estate and finance industry. Brett sources debt and equity capital for property owners, sells loans on behalf of financial institutions and special servicers, and provides special asset services for lending institutions for both domestic and international clients across all property types including office, multifamily, retail, industrial, hotels, mixed-use assets, and condominium developments. Brett has closed over $10 billion of note sales transactions throughout her career and since the onset of COVID, she has advised on over 40 UCC (Uniform Commercial Code) transactions involving over $3 billion of capital structure, establishing her as one of the most active advisors in the loan sales business.

Brett's steadfast commitment to excellence in the financing sector earned her recognition as one of Connect Media's 2021 Women in Real Estate which highlights women who have achieved success and played key mentorship roles for others within in the CRE industry. She was also recognized as an honoree for GlobeSt.'s 2022 Women of Influence award for personally impacting the market and significantly driving the industry to new heights through her outstanding success. Brett holds a BBA in Business from the University of Michigan and an MBA with a concentration in Finance and Real Estate from Columbia Business School.

.